

Does it Matter

Who or what is behind the debates

Does it matter if Jesus was crucified on a stake or cross?

Crucifixion on a stake or a cross does not matter. What matters is that he was Gods lamb that was killed so our sins could be forgiven and through him the spread of Gods word and love is for all humans and for them to worship the God the creator of all things. There is no debate here. The question is who or what is behind the debates on the stake or cross issue and why?

About the Cross symbol

- I found that some forms of the cross was first used by cults.
- Some religions say Christians should not use any form of the cross symbol because it originated by cults.
- Some people say it represents a dead Christ. And should not be used.
- Most Christians find it hard to commit sin in a room where there is a cross displayed, or a Bible on display.
- The cross can be a constant remembrance of Christ's sufferings and death for us.
- Christians cannot worship or pray to the cross. This is considered a sin.
- A cenotaph is a tomb or a monument erected in honor of a person or group of persons.

We must remember that on top of The Ark of the Covenant was 2 Cherubims. This ark was built from Gods specifications. Cherubims statues on the Ark Of God.

The Second Coming of Christ?

The 1000 year reign on Earth?

God has set the time for the Messiah to come. When and where and what will happen is up to God. For Christians it does not matter when, where or how, or what will happen. What is written in the Bible passages that has caused this major debate is not debatable. We must be happy that we know that the Messiah will come someday and this will be a good thing for the believers. We must spread word that the messiah does not care about the color of your skin or what country your from. The main point is that you have your name written in the book of life.

Should the book of Revelations be used to scare people into Christianity? Should Christians need or must study the book of revelations?

There is no need to worry or fear the book of Revelations because the believers and followers of the God of Abraham, Issac and Jacob who is God the father of Jesus Christ who was born of a virgin and crucified and rose from the dead have their names written in the book of life. This book is for knowledge and understanding for the believers. Non believers may not read it, nor understand it, or fear it.

Does it matter if Christians celebrate Christmas and Easter?

Christmas and Easter is a man made celebration in honor of Jesus Christ. It does not appear to be a sin if we celebrate it or not. These holidays may have their routes in the cult world but Christians are not in a pagan cult nor worshiping the holiday? Why judge and criticize others that do, or do not celebrate. Maybe this is between them and God. There is no debate here. Who or what is behind starting these debates.

Some Christians say we should not decorate trees nor put them in houses during Christmas season.

Jer 10:2-4 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

Why do we see Christmas trees in Churches?

Why do many Christians have decorated trees in their homes?

Is this a sin? Does Jeremiah Chapter 10 say it's a sin?

Why judge and criticize others that do, or do not have Christmas trees?

Maybe this is between them and God.

There is no need for a debate.

Does it matter if a preacher is given the title Reverend

Some Christians say Psalms:111:9 condemns it.

King James Bible

Psalms:111:9: He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name

NIV Bible

Psalms:111:9: He provided redemption for his people; he ordained his covenant forever— holy and awesome is his name.

Hebrew Bible

Psalms:111:9: He hath sent redemption unto His people; He hath commanded His covenant for ever; Holy and awful is His name.

Its normal for the first letter of a persons name be capitalized. Holy and reverend is not capitalized in the KJB.

There is no debate here. No need to judge others by their titles.

Does it matter if a Christians have Icons in their Churches and homes.

These icons can be pictures and statues and maybe other objects.

Most of us have pictures in our homes and/or wallets of family members.

Most churches have a cross in it (is this a type of Icon).

Many women and some men wear a necklaces with some type of Christian symbol.

God told them to put two Icons on the Ark.

Worshipping the icon is wrong. Praying to the icon is wrong. It is idolatry.

There is no debate here.

We must remember that on top of The Ark of the Covenant was 2 Cherubims. This ark was built from Gods specifications. Cherubims statues on the Ark Of God.

Does it matter if we have a party in our homes or go to a party and drink.

The first public miracle Jesus Christ made was where? A wedding reception.

What were they drinking? Win.

What we do not know about the Son of God.

- 1) We do not have a picture of him. Was his skin tone white, bronze, or black? Does it matter what his skin color was?
- 2) What was the color of his eyes.
- 3) Can we confirm without doubt if he had long or short hair.
- 4) We do not know how tall he was.
- 5) What is the name of Jesus in Hebrew? Yehoshua, Yeshua or Yesu? Do we have to say his name in Hebrew to be saved? Can we translate his name to another language and be in sin.
- 6) Can we confirm he was crucified on a stake or cross? What difference does it make. He was Gods lamb to die for our sins.
- 7) What happened between the age of 12 to 30. What did he do? Can any of this be confirmed? Do you think anyone would have followed a 12 year old?

Why debate on the items above? Will it send you to hell or give you a free pass to heaven? A contentious person will exhibit a perverse and wearisome tendency to quarrels and disputes.

Does it say anywhere in the Bible that if we eat any type of meat we want we will go to Hell and into the lake of fire?

Gen:1:27: So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Gen:1:29: And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

Gen:1:30: And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

Gen:9:3: Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. There is no debate here. Who or what is behind starting debates about food we can eat or not to eat?

Note:

In our time we can find that the above food is on many list as food to avoid if we want to live healthy and long.
